REPORT SUMMARY

I. OBJECTIVES OF THE ACTIVITY:

- Enhance the Understanding of CSOs on their roles and responsibilities in Project Monitoring Committees.
- Equip participants with practical knowledge and skills in project monitoring and evaluation.
- Strengthen collaboration between the LGU, government agencies, and CSOs.
- Promote transparency, accountability and participatory governance in project implementation.

II. HIGHLIGHTS OF THE ACTIVITY:

- The activity on Enhancing Capacity of Civil Society Organizations in Project Monitoring Committees successfully gathered CSO representatives, LGU officials and other stakeholders to strengthen their knowledge and skills in project monitoring. Resource persons discussed the roles and responsibilities of PMCs, project Monitoring procedures, and reporting mechanisms. An interactive open forum allowed participants to exchange insights, clarify concerns, and reaffirm their commitment to promoting transparency, accountability and good governance through active participation in monitoring government projects.

III. OUTPUT/S OF THE ACTIVITY:

Participants gained enhanced knowledge and skills on project monitoring, strengthened their understanding of the roles of CSOs in Project Monitoring Committees and reaffirm their commitment to promoting transparency, accountability and good governance through active participants.
